What Good Readers Do

- 1. See images.
- 2. Hear a reading voice.
- 3. Predict what will happen next.
- 4. Speculate.
- 5. Ask questions tease at puzzles.
- 6. Pass comments.
- 7. Feel.
- 8. Empathise.
- 9. Rationalise what is happening.
- 10. Re-read.
- 11. Re-interpret.
- 12. Interpret patterns.
- 13. Relate what they have read to their own experience.
- 14. Pass judgements likes and dislikes.
- 15. Relate what they have read to their previous reading experience.
- 16. Establish a relationship with the narrator.

- 1. Let your child see you as a reader.
- Do encourage your child to choose his/her own books.
- Go into a bookshop with your child and buy a book that your child wants.
- 4. Visit the library.
- 5. Let them read their favourite types of books and favourite authors.
- 6. Understand that book covers are important. If books are attractive children will want to read them.
- 7. Encourage them to read books with audio-tapes.
- 8. Don't assume that just because you enjoyed the book they will.
- 9. Look out for books that have won awards.
- 10. Encourage them to read whatever you can not just story books.
- 11. Subscribe to a magazine of your child's interest or hobby.
- 12. Find books about issues that your child may be worried about.

Top Tips For Encouraging Reading

- 13. Use CD ROMs and the Internet. This interactive approach to reading is very effective.
- 14. Create reading space and insist on at least 10 minutes per day.
- 15. Make the time to ask your child about their reading.
- 16. Read with your child once a week.
- 17. Buy a newspaper talk about the contents.
- 18. As a family, instead of channel hopping use teletext or find the paper. Read 'Backchat' on Ceefax and 'Club 140' on Teletext.
- 19. Read all the words you come across, together, in public places – e.g. on a shopping trip. Make it a game for a week.
- 20.Encourage them to talk to their teachers for advice.

Prompts For Reading Discussions

Before reading:

- Why have you chosen this text?
- What kind of text is it?
- What do you already know about the text?
- Does it have anything in common with any other texts you have read?
- Does it have any relation to your own experiences?
- What do you expect from this text?
- How should you approach reading this text?

During reading:

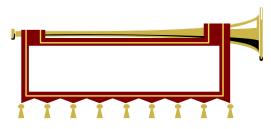

- Who is the voice of the text?
- What is the style of the text?
- Is the vocabulary mostly familiar?
 What words are unfamiliar?
- How can you work out...?
- What have you learnt about...?
- What pictures do you see in your mind?
- What do you think about...?
- How do you imagine ... feels?
- Why do you think ... does ...?
- What is the author suggesting about...?

During reading continued...

- How does the organisation of the text help you?
- What do the images show you? Why are they there?
- What do you think might happen next?

After reading:

- What did you like / dislike about the text? How did it make you feel?
- Did anything surprise you about the text?
- Do you need / want to re-read any part of the text?
- What have you learnt from what you've read?
- Would you like to continue with this text?
- How do you think the text might continue?
- Are you left with any questions in your head?

TOP TIPS

for supporting Reading

