

Why study A-level Art & Design at Woolwich Polytechnic?

'With teachers that are as talented and motivational as the ones at the Poly, you are set to succeed!' M. Delaney Year 13

Other than purpose built Art building and a team of dedicated Art teachers and artists, the Art department offers you...

Cultural experiences

- We run termly trips into London to see both traditional and contemporary art works and exhibitions. There will be a trip to Europe to explore the culture and artworks of another country.

Opportunities to work with professionals

- The Art department works alongside the Royal Academy of Art and the Royal College of Art to offer exciting workshops in a studio/university/professional environment.

Make it your Art A-level...

It's your Art A-level, so you choose the themes for your coursework, giving you the opportunity to express yourself. The Art teachers at Woolwich Polytechnic will guide you and help develop your skills, understanding, ideas and appreciation for art.
